

creative opportunity

BHA Design is a relatively small Landscape Architecture firm (currently 8 employees) located in Downtown Fort Collins, Colorado. Fort Collins is a vibrant college town tucked up against the foothills of the beautiful Rocky Mountains and is frequently ranked as one of the Best Places to Live and Best Places to Raise a Family.

We have created a work environment that emphasizes creativity, smart design, learning, collaboration, and fun. In a firm of our size, personality counts! We're looking for someone with a personal desire to grow, who is willing to work hard and have fun doing it.

If hired, you will have a meaningful role in the design process. You will be involved in projects from beginning to end; you will collaborate with our staff; you will work closely with our clients and other design professionals; you will develop design concepts; you will develop construction plans and details; you will see your designs being built; and you will be encouraged to explore and pursue your own interests in the field of Landscape Architecture.
